

Jamaican PARADISE

Kirsty Warboys and Grant Cousins won a fabulous wedding in Montego Bay, Jamaica courtesy of a competition from Pierre Carr Exclusive Tropical Weddings which we included in Perfect Wedding!

Even though Kirsty and Grant had been together for eleven years, Kirsty says it was still a “wonderful surprise” when he proposed to her on a romantic beach on Lanzarote in March 2009.

As every savvy bride should, Kirsty was reading Perfect Wedding magazine for inspiration back in May 2009 when she spotted a competition being run by Pierre Carr, Exclusive Tropical Weddings to win an amazing wedding in Montego Bay, Jamaica. Kirsty and Grant were the lucky couple chosen and the date was set for 24th February 2010. “The competition gave us a great location and there were so many fantastic offers included. Most importantly we were given access to Michelle, our wedding planner who guided us through every stage of our wedding – she even flew out to Jamaica to make sure absolutely everything ran according to plan.”

Kirsty tells us how they made their ceremony extra special:

“ WE DECIDED TO READ OUR OWN PERSONAL VOWS, WHICH MADE IT FEEL SPECIAL TO US ”

Kirsty and Grant's wedding was in February, which is when the weather in Jamaica is perfect for weddings. Kirsty says she was amazed at the beautiful flowers put out for their ceremony.
